From Focused on Occupancy to Focused on Value Creation

Drive NOI

- › Aggressive rent increases in a strong market
- › Minimize incentives
- › Real time upwards adjustment of rental rates in evolving market
- › Be willing to let tenants leave to drive higher rents

Investments

- › Recycle capital into growing our industrial portfolio

Selective Development

- › Greenfield
- › Redevelopment
- › Spec
- › Build to suit

A Unique Opportunity to Drive Strong NOI Growth

Aggressive Rent Growth

- › Dominant market position allows us to set market pricing
- › 7.7M sq.ft. expiring by 2022 (49% of total square footage) provide significant upside opportunity

Contractual Rent Increases

- › Use strength of the market to negotiate attractive rent upticks through lease term to ensure consistent future NOI growth

Optimize Occupancy

- › Maintain high occupancy but not at the expense of rent growth
- › Yield management approach to maximise NOI rather than occupancy
- › Retaining tenants where renewals rents are in line with market

Strategic Renewals

- › Renewal strategy focused on leveraging high tenant turnover in a rising rental rate market
- › Reduced focus on early renewals

Our industrial portfolio is extremely well positioned to capture potential rental rate upside

Low site coverage ratio

Proximity to major thoroughfares

Low office ratio

Proximity to public transit

High clear heights

Strong tenant covenants

Aligned with logistics and supply chain

Proximity to power grids and fiber connectivity

Lack of New Supply Provides Development Opportunities

Greenfield Development

- › Very well located land inventory of 2.6M sq.ft. with capability to develop up to 1.0M sq.ft.
- › Optimal site planning geared to seize built-to-suit & design build opportunities offering
- › Willing to pursue spec development due to strong market demand and lack of new supply

Asset Redevelopment /Infill

- › Opportunity to redevelop less functional contiguous properties into state-of-the art logistic facilities
- › Rent levels currently support full redevelopments
